Lincoln, Rhode Island | Tuesday, December 6, 2016: Twin River Casino has announced that it has launched online Simulated Gaming™ for Twin River Management Group, Inc. in partnership with GAN, an award-winning developer and supplier of enterprise-level B2B Internet gaming software, services and online gaming content in the United States.

Simulated Gaming™ is an innovative Internet gaming service designed by GAN specifically for land-based US casinos, offering a gaming-as-entertainment consumer website and mobile apps that include over 200 casino slot and table games, including poker, backgammon, gin rummy, poker dice and blackjack tournaments. This site is GAN's ninth Simulated Gaming client to come online.

Phil Juliano, SVP & Chief Marketing Officer for Twin River Management Group, Inc. commented, "GAN has worked closely with our marketing team, as well as our regulators, in order to strike a pragmatic balance between social casino gaming and regulated player protection features, ensuring our Simulated Gaming™ website and mobile apps were launched with a competitive market offering. We are finally in the digital space with gaming, allowing our guests another way to play."

Dermot Smurfit, CEO of GAN commented, "Twin River brings GAN's market-leading Simulated Gaming experience back online in the lucrative gaming market of New England. Twin River guests have already warmly received the online experience delivered by GAN, which is strengthening Twin River's guest relationships on-property."

Twin River's new site, www.play.twinriver.com, is now available on desktops and is downloadable on iPhone and Android apps. Patrons can receive 5,000 free virtual credits when they sign up, and can receive additional free play credits each day they log on. Patrons that choose to purchase credits can also receive a rebate on those online purchases, which are redeemable on-property.
